

Becky Ewing, Potosi District Ranger

Becky was born and raised in Mt. Prospect, Illinois.

She received a B.S. in Zoology from Eastern Illinois University and a M.S. in Wildlife and Fisheries Sciences from South Dakota State University.

Becky came to the Forest Service in 1989 from the Indiana Department of Natural Resources, where she was a fisheries research technician. She served as the Wayne-Hoosier's shared-service fisheries biologist until 2000, when her duties transferred to the Wayne.

She then spent six years as the Wayne National Forest's fish, wildlife, botany, and range program manager before moving to Milwaukee as the R9 TES Species Program Manager. Becky completed an acting District Ranger detail on the Green Mountain-Finger Lakes National Forest during the "non-winter" of 2011-2012.

Becky is currently also the leader of the White-nose Syndrome Conservation & Recovery Working Group and a member of the Interagency White Nose Syndrome Coordination Committee.
